Sheep Market Report

26TH NOVEMBER 2025 - A YARDING 3,700 OF SHEEP & LAMBS, WITH 2,035 LAMBS AND THE BALANCE SHEEP.

Numbers lifted by 1,600 this fortnight, with a good-quality yarding of sheep and lambs. All major processors were present and competed in a market that was generally firm. A large run of new-season shorn lambs made up the bulk of the lamb offering. The best of the heavy XLs reached a top of $320, with several pens making $290-$320, leaving this category firm to $5-$10 dearer. Medium processing XLs sold from $254-$290, with the market firm to $10 cheaper, largely reflecting a quality-driven correction. Light XLs to kill were firm on last sale, while store buyers operated from $70-$130 for light lambs and $201-$223 for the better XLs to feed. The best of the hoggets topped at $251 for a pen of extra heavy types. Heavy 3-4 score ewes were firm to $10-$15 dearer, with Merino ewes reaching $265 and the crossbred portion selling to $255. Plenty of light mutton was yarded, with most sales ranging from $50-$152. The best pen of rams made $150.

Cattle Market Report

26TH NOVEMBER 2025 - 1147 CATTLE YARDED

Numbers lifted this fortnight by 150 cattle, with all major processors and feedlotters present and competing in a dearer market. Feeder steers slipped 8-10c/kg, while feeder heifers sold 3-5c/kg dearer than last sale, with the lead pens reaching 465.2c/kg. Export steers were 10-15c/kg dearer, and a strong run of Angus export heifers saw the top pens reach 484.2c/kg, selling 20-30c/kg dearer. A big yarding of cows this fortnight saw the lead cows top at 430c/kg, improving 8-10c/kg. Heavy bulls reached 400c/kg, selling 50c/kg dearer, largely on quality.
