Sheep Market Report

13TH MAY 2026 - A YARDING 2,504 OF SHEEP & LAMBS, WITH 1,875 LAMBS AND THE BALANCE SHEEP.

Numbers back nearly 2,500 head on last fortnights sale. All major processors were present in the market, resulting in limited overall price movement.

Extra heavy export lambs topped at $390, with quality drafts selling $10-$20 stronger. Heavy export lambs sold either side of firm, with quality again playing a key role in pricing. Medium and light lambs saw limited change overall, with most sales firm to slightly easier.

Merino lambs topped at $220, remaining firm on the previous sale. Crossbred ewes sold firm to dearer, particularly the heavy mutton lines, with some sales improving by $10-$15. Merino ewes followed a similar trend, with very limited numbers yarded, selling firm on the previous market. Merino rams topped at $170.
