Sheep Market Report

25TH JUNE 2025 - A YARDING OF 3,171 SHEEP & LAMBS, WITH 2,516 LAMBS AND THE BALANCE SHEEP.

Numbers were back by nearly 3,400 head this fortnight, with the absence of one major processor influencing outcomes across some categories. Extra heavy XLs, while reaching a top of $385/hd this sale, were potentially $10/hd cheaper on quality. Heavy XLs followed a similar trend, selling to a top of $310/hd, with most lambs trading $5-10/hd either side of firm. Medium XLs were also $5/hd either side of firm, as were the majority of light XLs, with isolated sales reaching up to $15/hd dearer. The best run of Merino lambs seen in some months was yarded, with the lead pen making $245/hd. The bulk of the Merino lambs sold between $100-188/hd, while those with weight and cover ranged from $188-245/hd. Heavy XEs topped at $240/hd, back $10-15/hd on last sale, while heavy 3-4 score MEs reached a top of $190/hd, also back $10-20/hd. The best of the rams sold to $130/hd.

JOKE OF THE WEEK

While on a golf tour in Ireland, Tiger Woods pulls his BMW into a petrol station in a remote part of the Irish countryside. The pump attendant, clearly unfamiliar with golf, greets him in true Irish fashion, completely unaware of who the famous visitor is.

"Top of the mornin' to yer, sir!" says the attendant cheerfully. Tiger gives a polite nod and leans forward to pick up the fuel nozzle. As he does, two tees fall from his shirt pocket onto the ground.

"What are those?" asks the attendant.

"They're called tees," replies Tiger.

"And what in god's earth are they for?" the Irishman inquires.

"They're for resting my balls on when I'm driving," says Tiger with a grin.

The Irishman stares in disbelief.

"Feckin' hell," he mutters. "BMW thinks of everything!"
